A. The Policy:

The Club in organising its events including Club Rides, Time Trials, Leisure Rides etc. expects participants to observe the following safety standards and other recommendations and will appoint Officials, Marshals and Rides Leaders to this end.

A. 1 - Specifics

1. The Law of The Land relating to road travel (whether on or off-road)
2. The Highway Code
3. The Rules and Regulations of recognised Bodies (e.g. the Cycling Time Trials, CTT) who regulate specific events.

A. 2 – General

1. It is recommended that Cycling Helmets are worn at all times
2. All riders to be paid-up club members before participating in competitive events.
3. Those under 18 years must always be accompanied by a Parent/Guardian who is a current member of Truro Cycling Club.
4. Payment of Membership fees will be deemed to acknowledge awareness of this Safety Policy.
5. The Safety Policy will be made known to all members and parents/guardians of Juniors and Juveniles through the medium of the Newsletter
6. The Club will monitor this policy and update it where necessary through Its General Committee which meets at monthly intervals
7. Amendments to be issued through Club Newsletter.
8. The Club will operate insurance as detailed in E. below :

B. Club Responsibilities

1. Club events will normally be advised in the Club Newsletter to enable members to determine its suitability for their own participation
2. The Ride Leader will undertake the following :
 - To determine the choice of route
 - To determine the pace and progress of the ride, and may seek help in managing the group
 - To offer comment on weather conditions and abilities required as appropriate
 - Although not responsible for the behaviour of individual riders with regards to safety and competence, may comment on these aspects as necessary
 - After consultation with at least one other adult club member, may preclude any rider from participating in the event if that rider is considered inadequately prepared
 - In the event of any incident, to summon roadside assistance and arrange to notify relatives/ parents /guardians as soon as possible

C. Riders Responsibilities

1. All riders shall comply with the Club's Safety Policy
2. All riders are responsible for their own safety and the safety of others by showing competence in their bike skills, and by being properly attired and equipped
3. Riders are responsible for ensuring their cycles are in safe mechanical order, including lights where necessary, and of an appropriate size and type for the event
4. Riders are responsible for carrying suitable spares, including repair kits and tools to maintain their cycles in a safe mechanical condition, and cycles should be equipped for the safe carriage of any additional clothes, food and drinks.
5. Under-18 riders should carry their Information Form (which parents /guardians will update as necessary) at all times when participating in club events
6. Participants are recommended to carry their own personal First Aid kit and any specific medication they may require and be capable of self-administration as appropriate
7. If any rider intends to leave the ride they should ensure that the Ride Leader is informed.

D.–Guest Riders

1. Guest riders may participate in Club Rides but the number of-Guests is limited to a safe maximum.
2. Participation by non-members in other events will be subject to the rules relating to that event.
3. Guests are required to become full Club members after participating in a maximum of 2 club rides,

E. Insurance: The Club will operate insurance as below:

1. To cover Club Officers & Appointed Officials (Marshals and Leaders) against 3rd party / public liability for its activities (e.g. Club rides etc.) – BC Affiliation or Cycling UK Organisers cover
2. To provide Third party cover for club members while participating in Time Trials - Affiliation to the CTT (Cycling Time Trials). (This is normally only considered and acted on by the CTT if cover is not provided via BC, Cycling UK or Personal Liability cover)
3. To provide Cycling UK 3rd party insurance cover for Guest from claims against them by Club members.
4. The Club will encourage all its members to maintain, as a minimum, Public Liability insurance (Third Party) for their personal cover for cycling activities from such sources as:
 - Domestic Household Contents or other private insurance policies
 - Cycling UK membershipSee: <https://www.cyclinguk.org/insurance>
5. Additionally, Personal Accident insurance should be considered by everyone.
